JUNE 2015 NEWSLETTER

Whether classes are close to finishing in your school community or there are still a few weeks left, we wish all students well, and congratulate those who are graduating and moving on with the next phase of their work and learning! We extend our great appreciation to all parents, educators, administrators, families and communities who have been instrumental in supporting students to reach their goals.

IMPORTANT DOCUMENT TO READ--JUST RELEASED....

After years of extensive work, a summary of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada's Final Report and Recommendations is now available and can be found here.

There are 'CALLS TO ACTION' (Recommendations) that are specific to "Education"—they are numbered 6-12. Another section titled "Education for Reconciliation" are numbers 62-65.

LISTEN AND LEARN OPPORTUNITIES...

As promised, Charmaine Hammond, one of our guest speakers at the Spring 2015 School Councils' Conference did a 45 minute follow-up tele-seminar on May 21st on the topics of Resilience and Improving Communication and Connections which was recorded.

For those who could not participate but would like to hear it, just double click on the icon below:

If you have the date set for your School Council in September, we'd be happy to hear it so we can post it on our online calendar and attend as possible. Thanks!

We will be accessible throughout the summer.

You can connect with us through our website: www.ayscbc.org and directly with Carol, our Executive Director.

We send our best wishes for a safe and relaxing summer to one and all!
Thanks for all your time, energy and work on your School Council or Board and/or in whatever capacities you contribute to improving the learning experiences for our students!

Together
we can make a difference
