

RAISING AWARENESS ABOUT
 SCHOOL COUNCILS
&
THE ROLE THEY PLAY IN YUKON PUBLIC EDUCATION

School Councils play an important role because they have the ability to make decisions that have an impact on the direction and quality of public education.

School Councils are elected bodies that can make decisions independent of the territorial government.

School Councils address public education issues that are important to their community.

A locally elected School Council ensures the community has a say in what and how the children learn.

School Councils help to build the social strength of their community.

School Councils keep the public in public education.
